Okanagan Treasure Hunters Club Coin Hunt - Aug-Sept 2017

by Maggie St-Hilaire

A coin belonging to our club
Is hiding in a town,
With beaches, peaches, orchards,
And a giant looking down

It's safely buried in a place
That's fun for everyone,
From "Spirits", kids, dogs, boaters
To volleyballers in the sun

A place to sit, to eat, reflect
On summers waning days,
And "5737"
Will help to lead the way

Let's give a real warm welcome to our newest club member!

32 Year Old Engagement Ring & Wedding Ring Found And Returned

Leah was enjoying a hot day on the beach in Kelowna, BC. She took off her rings so as not to lose them. Usually she puts them in her wallet for safe keeping, but her wallet was not handy, so she put them in the chair's cup holder. At the end of the day, her husband picked up the chairs and they went back to the hotel. While washing her hands, Leah realized the loss of the rings. They went back to the beach to search for them, to no avail. Leah's husband said "they are gone, someone picked them up". Distraught Leah searched the internet for help, finding my site, she gave me a call. I told them I would meet her at 6am on the beach. I arrived at the beach at 5am to beat the beach grooming machine. I noticed where they had searched the sand and found the rings easily. When Leah arrived I told her to give me a hug, then I handed her the rings. Needless to say she was delighted. She told me she had not slept all night worrying about the loss.
